DISCUSSION

Background

OILC's infrastructure renewal loan program provides low-cost, longer term financing to meet critical municipal infrastructure priorities. OILC is based on a proven "pooled financing" concept that combines the infrastructure investment needs of many borrowers into one borrowing pool.

OILC provides access to infrastructure capital that would not otherwise be available to smaller borrowers. Larger borrowers receive a longer term on their loans than they could obtain in the financial markets and can also benefit from significant savings on transaction costs such as legal costs and underwriting commissions. Under the OILC program, all borrowers receive the same low interest rate. OILC will enter into financing and/or rate offer agreements with the County subject to technical and credit reviews, for loans up to the maximum amount of the loan request.

OILC provides indicative lending rates upon request based on the capital market. Rates on debentures are fixed for the entire life of the loan once the debenture is issued. Rates on construction and short-term loans float throughout the term of the loan until they are replaced by a debenture. OILC reserves the right to withdraw applications if they become inactive for more than one year after the date of submission. If a municipality has signed a financing agreement but have not drawn on the loan for a period of 12 months will be required to pay an annual standby fee of 0.25% on the committed amount.

Although there is no direct impact on the County's annual budgets as a result of adopting the recommendations contained this report, the County is directly, jointly and severally liable for default of the terms and conditions of the resulting financing agreements pertaining to area municipalities.
